

Solving problems

Creative thinking

Agenda

- Problem-solving scenario 1: Cross the river
- Functional language: Brainstorming, suggesting solutions, offering alternatives, describing steps
- Problem-solving scenario 1: The weekend
- Video: Improve your problem-solving skills
- Problem-solving scenario 3: The boat race

Starting off

- How good are you at problem-solving?
- Where and when do you get your best ideas? Complete the following phrases and say which are true for you.

shower

while I'm taking a ...	travelling to and from ...	in the middle of the ...	relaxing with a good out of the...	first thing in the ...	when I'm zoning...	after a good night's...
while sitting at my ...	listening to ...	during brainstorming...	while I'm ...

<https://wordwall.net/play/99553/235/135>

Lektor

Instructions

- There is a Japanese expression: None of us is as smart as all of us.
- Work together to find a solution to the problem.

Functional language

Brainstorming

- Let's throw some ideas around.
- Let's see what else we could come up with.
- There's no harm in exploring...
- What if we turned the problem upside down and...?

Describing next steps

- Let's start by... and then move on to...
- To begin with, we should...
- Once that's done, we can...
- So, here's what we could do next...

Suggesting solutions

- One possible solution could be...
- Have you thought about...?
- We could consider...
- It might be a good idea to...
- It might be worth trying...
- Perhaps we should look at...
- How about if we...?
- Why don't we...?
- I suggest that we...
- Let's think about how we could...

Offering alternatives

- Alternatively, we could...
- Another option might be to...
- There's also the possibility of...
- We could always...
- If we don't do that, we might... instead.
- A different approach would be to...
- Maybe we should take a different route and...
- We might also want to explore...
- We could go down a different path and...

Improve your problem-solving skills

<https://wordwall.net/play/99560/318/752>

Lektor

That's all, folks!

